Metro Expo Line Fact Sheet

PROJECT OVERVIEW

The 8.6 mile first phase of the Expo Line will connect the Westside by rail to Downtown LA, Pasadena, San Fernando Valley, South Bay, Long Beach and dozens of points in between. With 10 new stations serving USC, Exposition Park, and diverse LA neighborhoods such as Culver City, the Crenshaw District, and Downtown LA, the Metro Rail system will expand to 80 stations and over 87 miles of rail to destinations across LA County.
