Get in Gear for Bike Month

May is National Bike Month, and it's your chance to enjoy the many benefits of this low-cost, environmentally friendly way to get where you need to go. Here's what's happening:

Throughout Southern California

Starting May 3, pledge to participate in Bike Month for a chance to win an electric bike. Cyclists can ride free on Metrolink during Bike Week, which starts May 17, when they bring a bike onboard. Make the pledge and look for more events at metrolinktrains.com.

In Los Angeles County

Metro is offering free virtual biking classes to teach riders the basics for commuting by bike.

Throughout May, you can get a discount on an annual pass to Metro Bike Hubs as well as deals on Metro Bike Share—short-term rental bikes that you can use throughout Los Angeles.

Get details and promo codes—as well as find out about other Bike Month events—at metro.net/bikemonth.

In Orange County...

Orange County Transportation Authority (OCTA) has proclaimed May “Bike Everywhere Month.” They’re encouraging people to bike daily—or as often as they can—for a chance to win prizes. The more days you bike, the more chances you have to win.

Each day, OCTA will issue a fun challenge, such as “bike on your lunch break” or “bike 8 miles.”

In Ventura County...

Ride your bike during Bike Week May 17-21 for a chance to win one of several $250 Visa gift cards. Make the pledge at goventura.org.

Weigh in on Walking and Biking Options

What do you think is needed to make it better to walk or ride a bike where you live and work? Caltrans is conducting an online survey—allowing people to pinpoint on a map the areas that need improvement.

Your input will be considered when developing future projects.

Give your feedback at survey.catplan.org.

New Express Lanes on the I-15

Riverside County's 15 Express Lanes are now open, giving motorists a convenient new way to travel. The new toll lanes extend 15 miles from Route 60 to Cajalco Road in Corona.

During the initial months of operation, carpools of three or more people can ride free. After that, they can ride at half price. A transponder set to “3” is required.

A Whole New Ballgame

Baseball is back—of course, with limited capacity games due to the Coronavirus pandemic. Here are options to get to the games if want an alternative to driving and parking:

The Dodger Stadium Express

Metro's Dodger Stadium Express is offering modified service from Union Station and Harbor Gateway Transit Center to the ballpark for every home game. Rides are free with a game ticket.

Traveling to Angels Stadium

The Angels Express train is not operating this year. However, fans can ride regular-service Metrolink trains to get to and from the games.

In addition, OC Bus offers service to the ARTIC Station in Anaheim, where it is a short walk to Angels Stadium.
