Metro Art Presents

Friday, February 3, 8:30-10 pm: Vardan Ovsepian Chamber Ensemble (VOCE), Union Station Historic Ticketing Hall. VOCE’s provocative arrangements integrate elements of three traditions: western classical forms, jazz improvisation, and folk elements from different lands. The compositions range from darkly epic and driving, to playful and contemplative, varying in length from vignettes to longer suites.
Sunday, February 12, 2017 2-4:30 pm: A special free Valentine’s Day Art Metro Art Tour, starts at Arcadia Gold Line Station. Learn about station art and watch pop-up performances by the Independent Shakespeare Company.

Tuesday, February 14, 8:30–10:30 pm: Enjoy an evening of tango in Union Station’s Historic Ticketing Hall. Take a free tango lesson, then dance to live orchestra Tangótico and watch dance performances by Carlos Barrionuevo and Mayte Valdes. Doors open at 7:30pm with dancing from 8-10:30pm.

Thursday, February 16, 10:15 am: Metro Public Art Annual Condition Report: System Safety, Security and Operations Committee, One Gateway Plaza, 3rd Floor, Metro Board Room

Union Station Tours
Led by trained Metro Art Docents, the tours cover historic Union Station art, architecture and spaces not generally open to the public, including the Historic Ticketing Hall and former Fred Harvey restaurant. Tours also explore artworks located in the Gold Line Portal, Union Station E and inside the Metro Gateway Headquarters Building. Tours begin at the information booth inside the Alameda St entrance to historic Union Station at 10:30am and are two hours long.

Year Round Tours
FREE docent led tours focus on getting around town using transit, introducing riders to a variety of artworks in Red Line stations, and drawing attention to area destinations served by Metro.

First Saturdays, 10am - 12pm: Meet promptly at 10am at the St level entrance to the Hollywood/Highland Metro Rail Station on Hollywood Bl near the corner with Highland Av. If driving to Hollywood/Highland station, park at the Visitors’ Center at the Hollywood/Highland shopping center complex to obtain partial parking validation. This tour is roundtrip.

First Sundays, 10am - 12pm: Meet promptly at 10am at the information booth inside the entrance to historic Union Station at 800 Alameda St in Downtown Los Angeles. There is pay parking at Union Station, and metered street parking and pay lots in the immediate area. This tour is roundtrip.
