2. APPROVED ON CONSENT CALENDAR Minutes of Regular Board Meeting held April 26, 2001 and Special Board Meeting held May 14, 2001.

3. Chief Executive Officer’s Report – NO REPORT.

4. Chair’s Report – NO REPORT

5. A. ELECTED Director Fasana as First Vice Chair by a unanimous vote; and

   B. APPROVED UNDER RECONSIDERATION BY A ROLL CALL VOTE YAROSLAVSKY MOTION – that the Rules and Procedures be amended to provide that the Chair of the MTA Board will serve a one-year term.
6. APPROVED AMENDED REVISIONS to the adopted 2001 Long Range Transportation Plan (LRTP) for Los Angeles County:

A. incorporate revisions to the discussion of the I-710 Freeway Gap Closure;

Approved, as amended by Fasana, to delete the following paragraph from Attachment a to the revised report dated May 24, 2001:

“The I-710 Project is being developed to allow construction in phases. Phase 1 will extend the freeway from Valley Boulevard to Huntington Drive. Caltrans has undertaken a traffic impact analysis of the temporary Huntington Drive terminus. Based upon the findings of the analysis, Caltrans will coordinate the implementation of traffic operations measures with the local jurisdictions to ensure, safe, efficient traffic operation between phases”.

B. incorporate revisions which clarify that southern portion of the Arbor Vitae Interchange is a baseline project needed to address existing mobility needs and that the northern portion of the interchange is not in the LRTP and will require specific MTA Board approval before programming and implementation could occur; and

APPROVED, as amended by Burke, to include the following positions:

- The Arbor Vitae Project - Southern Portion is needed to relieve current conditions associated with the I-405 corridor, and given this status, the MTA reaffirms its commitment to Project, and Project funding;

- The Southern Portion of the Project is not a project included in future LAX expansion plans as a mitigation but is referenced as an existing condition; and

- In recognition of the community concern over increased congestion on the surface streets surrounding the I-405 corridor associated with the
LAX  Masterplan, the MTA Board will not program, approve, fund or recommend for funding the Northern half of the Arbor Vitae Interchange until such a time as community issues with this project can be resolved to the satisfaction of the community.

C. incorporate revisions regarding local system preservation, which clarify that staff will take a strong leadership role in assisting sub-regional and individual jurisdictions in accessing and drawing-down funds for system preservation needs, as well as seeking new funding for such needs.

APPROVED, as amended by Proo/Knabe, to include: staff work with sub-regions and individual jurisdictions to evaluate local system preservation and capacity enhancement needs/issues and report to the Board in fiscal year 2002 with findings and recommendations for addressing such needs/issues.

D. limit Ridershare funding to $4,367,270 in FY02 until an evaluation of the rideshare program is conducted and presented to the Board by March 2002.
