It’s Your Life, Enjoy the Ride

Join the thousands of commuters who will leave the solo drive behind and share the ride during Rideshare Week, Oct. 1-5. Southern Californians on average spend 80 hours a year stuck in traffic tie-ups. Ridesharing gives you your life back. You may be able to save time using the carpool lane (about 40 minutes a day for most)—or skip the drive altogether by riding transit, biking or walking.

Make the Pledge, Win Prizes.

When you pledge to carpool, vanpool, ride bus/rail, bike or walk to work at least one day during Rideshare Week, you’ll have a chance to win prizes. Here’s how:

Los Angeles County—Log in to use the Metro Commute Calendar at ridematch.info and register how you get to work each day to win gift cards for Macy’s, Amazon and other retailers, Metrolink passes and more. The more times you share the ride, the more chances you have to win.

Orange County—Go to octa.net to make the pledge to rideshare to qualify for a drawing to win prizes including Apple Watches and Fitbits.

Inland Empire—Win any of dozens of prizes including vacation packages, gift cards and more by filling out a pledge card at work, online at IEcommuter.org or by calling 1.866. RIDESHARE (866.743.3742).

Ventura County—Pledge to share the ride at goventura.org to win prizes.
